SUMMER PROGRAMS at the museum
SOROMUNDI
Lesbian Chorus of Eugene
Tuesday, June 6 | Performance at 6:00 p.m.
Museum exhibits open 4:00 to 8:00 p.m.

Join us as we kick off National Pride Month with Soromundi! Bring your own blanket, low chairs, picnics, and comfortable outdoor attire to enjoy songs by our local lesbian chorus in the museum’s Native Plant Courtyard.

Space is limited. First come; first served.

WORLD OCEANS DAY—
Meet Fossil Creatures from the Deep
Thursday, June 8 | 6:00 to 7:00 p.m.

Celebrate World Oceans Day at the museum. Meet museum paleontologists and get up close with fossils that tell the story of Oregon’s ancient coast, from sea stars to whales and dolphins. Discover how museum collections are helping us better understand future climate change.

NATURE NIGHT
Wetlands and Watersheds
Thursday, June 22 | 4:30 to 7:30 p.m.

The Lane Audubon Society, the McKenzie River Watershed Council, and the McKenzie River Discovery Center will be at the museum to share the many ways we can study, protect, and enjoy Oregon’s amazing waterways. Swing by the museum store to check out our collection of fun and unique gifts for the nature-lover in your life.

NATIVE PLANT TOUR
Saturday, June 10 | 1:00 to 2:00 p.m.

Celebrate summer with a walk and talk in and around the museum’s Glenn Starlin Native Plant Courtyard guided by members of Native Plant Society of Oregon, Emerald Chapter. With more than 40 species, the courtyard offers a rich array of plant life that have supported thriving Indigenous cultures for millennia.

Space is limited. First come; first served.

All events included with regular admission; free for MNCH members and UO ID card holders. Show your Oregon Trail or other EBT card for an admission discount. Visit mnch.uoregon.edu for more information.
OREGON CULTURE NIGHTS
Thursday Evenings in August

Join us for a celebration of Oregon’s living traditions, featuring performances and demonstrations by master artists from around Oregon. Bring your lawn chairs and enjoy this outdoor program highlighting Oregon heritages.

Oregon Culture Nights showcase the work of master artists from the Traditional Arts and Apprenticeship Program, an initiative of the museum’s Oregon Folklife Network. This season’s outdoor events are subject to change based on the weather. Please visit mnch.uoregon.edu for the most current information.
